JUDGMENT ON DECISION

This case comes before the Court on the Trustee’s Motion For Turnover And Objection To Amended Claim of Exemption. In his motion, the trustee seeks turnover from the debtors $1,979.65, representing wages earned as of the date of bankruptcy but paid post-petition. Debtors assert that seventy-five percent (75%) of these wages are exempt under K.S.A. §60-2310.

For reasons stated in the Memorandum Opinion On Trustee’s Motion For Turnover And Objection To Amended Claim Of Exemption, judgment is hereby entered in favor of the trustee only to the extent of $494.92. The trustee’s objection to the debtor’s exemption of seventy-five percent (75%) of his pre-petition wages or $1,484.73, is overruled.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated at Wichita, Kansas, this 30th day of May, 2001.

ROBERT E. NUGENT, BANKRUPTCY JUDGE
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF KANSAS
