On July 12, 2016, this court signed a case management procedures order² which, among other things, established a regular recurring omnibus hearing date for non-evidentiary matters. With fewer matters being heard, the Court FINDS that the need for a separate omnibus docket no longer exists.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED BY THE COURT that, effective January 2022, all non-evidentiary matters in this case and all related adversary proceedings will be set on this Court's routine Chapter 11 monthly docket. All other provisions in the case management procedures order remain in effect unless otherwise modified by further court order.
