Dear Federal Bar Member:

Pursuant to District of Kansas Local Bankruptcy Rule 9029.3, this court's Bankruptcy Bench Bar Committee consists of the chief judge, any other judges who may be appointed by the court, the United States Attorney or a designated assistant (permanent member), the U.S. Trustee for Region 20 or a designated assistant (permanent member), a Chapter 13 Trustee, a Chapter 7 Trustee, and six (6) actively practicing members of the bar of the bankruptcy court. The Bankruptcy Court may also appoint a Chapter 12 Trustee, as needed.

The Bankruptcy Bench Bar Committee provides a forum for the continuous study of the operating procedures of the court; serves as liaison among the court and its bar and the public; studies, considers and recommends the adoption, amendment or rescission of the Rules of Practice of the court; and makes studies and renders reports and recommendations as the court directs.

Two positions will open on July 1, 2020, and are for three-year terms. These positions are for actively practicing members of the bankruptcy bar.

If you are interested in serving on the Bench Bar Committee, please complete the enclosed application for membership and send it to David_Zimmerman@ksb.uscourts.gov or to:
