13. FURTHER PROCEEDINGS AND FILINGS

13.1 Status Conference

A pretrial status conference will be scheduled for _____; or the Court may schedule a status conference before the trial begins.

13.2 Trial Briefs and Motions in Limine

Each party desiring to submit a trial brief shall comply with the requirements of D. Kan. Final_Pretrial_Order_Form 2021.02.23

LBR 9013.1. Trial briefs shall be served and filed no less than three (3) business days in advance of trial. Unless noted below, the Court does not require trial briefs, but finds them helpful, particularly if the parties anticipate that unique or difficult issues will arise during trial.

If checked, the Court requires trial briefs be filed on the schedule set out above. Motions in Limine shall be filed on or before five (5) business days before trial.

14. ORDERS OF THE COURT

14.1 Except by consent of the parties or by order of the Court to prevent manifest injustice, exhibits not listed and not described in this Order shall not be admitted into evidence and witnesses not listed and not identified in this Order shall not testify except in proper rebuttal. Either party may offer the testimony of witnesses listed by the other and either party may offer into evidence exhibits listed by the other.

14.2 This Order shall control the subsequent course of this action and shall not be modified except by order of the Court on its own motion or on motion of the parties to prevent manifest injustice.

14.3 The Court finds that this case is at issue, all discovery is complete and that the case will be ready for trial upon entry of this Order and any order(s) resolving any dispositive motions. This Order shall supersede the pleadings filed herein in defining issues for trial to the Court.

14. 4 The date of trial will be set by the Court after consultation with the parties and, as such, will be deemed to be agreed to among the parties. Therefore, a trial setting will likely not be continued. Parties seeking continuances are advised to refer to D. Kan. Rule 6.1(b) and to note that strict compliance is required as this rule has been adopted by this Court.
