STANDING ORDERS

By vote of a majority of the judges of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Kansas, the court may issue standing orders addressing administrative and procedural concerns or matters of temporary or local significance.

(a) Procedure. Each standing order, unless expressly made effective until further order, will include the effective date and the expiration date. Standing orders have the same force and effect as other rules of the court. They are numbered consecutively by calendar year (e.g., 14-1) and are cited as D. Kan. Bk. S.O. 14-2.

(b) Notice of Issuance. Public notice of the issuance of a standing order will be given in the manner and for the time determined by the majority of the bankruptcy judges for the District of Kansas. The notice will be given prior to the effective date of the Standing Order, except in emergencies.
