JUDGMENT ON DECISION

In three separate adversary proceedings, the United States Trustee, creditor Robert Page, and case trustee Carl Davis, object to Larry Jean Jamison receiving a discharge in his bankruptcy case. Plaintiffs contend that Jamison transferred or concealed assets within one year of his petition date with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors in violation of 11 U.S.C. § 727(a)(2)(A) and that Jamison made one or more false oaths or accounts in violation of 11 U.S.C. § 727(a)(4)(A). Trial on the adversary proceedings was held on July 13, 2005.

The issues at trial centered upon the debtor’s involvement in several automotive related businesses with members of debtor’s family but which debtor claimed he had no interest in and several omissions and inconsistencies in debtor’s schedules and statement of financial affairs.

The Court concludes that debtor concealed his interest in the automotive businesses and did so with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud creditors and the case trustee in violation of § 727(a)(2)(A). The Court further finds that debtor knowingly and fraudulently made a false oath by submitting bankruptcy schedules and a statement of financial affairs that were materially false and in violation of § 727(a)(4)(A).

JUDGMENT is entered in favor of plaintiff and against Larry Jean Jamison on each of the adversary complaints. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 727(a)(2)(A) and § 727(a)(4)(A) Jamison is DENIED a discharge.
